

THE SECOND ANNUAL MOTORING

Kulture Kruise!

1st - 4th May 2015

Following on from last year's highly successful inaugural Kulture Kruise, we thought we would repeat it for the 2015 May Bank Holiday weekend!

Starting from Knutsford Services on Friday, we'll take a direct route down the motorway to the Heritage Motor Museum at Gaydon, where we'll stay for a couple of hours. You can have lunch in the museum's café, as well as taking a tour of this fantastic museum. It's then back on the bikes for a 120-mile trip down to the Solent Breezes Holiday Park, our base for the weekend, where we're sure of a warm welcome after last year's visit! Friday night is usually spent in the clubhouse/restaurant.

On Saturday morning, we'll head-off to Southampton H-D for breakfast, before heading into the New Forest for a visit to one of the fantastic visitor attractions in the area, such as Winchester Cathedral, Tangmere Military Aviation Museum, Mottisfont House or the famous Sir Harold Hillier Gardens. We may also visit the Sammy Miller Museum or the Haynes' Sparkford Museum, both are within an hour's ride, before returning to the site for a great evening of FREE entertainment in the on-site clubhouse.

On Sunday, we plan to visit Portsmouth - a fantastic city with a great historic centre. Attractions include HMS Victory, The Mary Rose Museum, The Spinnaker Tower and a stylish cultural quarter with loads to see and do. Our ride back to the site will include a stop at a local pub for an evening meal.

On Monday, we plan to take a leisurely route home, avoiding motorways coming straight up through the Heart of England! We haven't got firm costs yet, but the Holiday Park will be around £50pp for the weekend, plus £25 pp museum entrance fees.
